

Inge O. Langham

September 29, 1925 - March 30, 2013

Inge O. Langham 1925 - 2013 Inge (Blank) Langham died in Napa on March 30, 2013, surrounded by family. She was born in 1925 in Dortmund, Germany. After Kristallnacht, Inge arrived with her sister Doris in England via the Kindertransport in 1938. She survived the Blitz in England and arrived in the United States in 1940 where she completed her education. She met Richard "Dick" Langham while he was on a visit from England and they married shortly afterward. They spent the first ten years of their married life in New York City and its suburbs. In 1960 they moved to Woodstock, New York where they lived for the next 38 years. She worked with Dick at Special Office Services and then in the real estate business. Inge and Dick moved to Napa in 1998 to be closer to their children and grandchildren. Inge is predeceased by her husband Richard Langham and her sister Doris Ronald. She is survived by her daughter Margaret (Peggy) Langham and wife Pam Hefferman, son Peter and wife Barbara Langham and grandchildren Patrick and Rebecca Langham. She is also survived by several nieces, nephews, grandnieces and grandnephews. In lieu of flowers the family suggests a donation to your local food bank or Doctors Without Borders. Private memorial services will be held at a later date. Please share memories at treadwaywigger.com

“ I was privileged to have known Inge for 53 years and to enjoy her friendship for all those years. Despite the huge distance between Ulster County, NY and Napa, CA we maintained a loving friendship. She will always remain in my heart for her fine qualities, especially her loyalty to family and friends.
