“ Lots of great memories of my older brother. He was so excited when he learned I was into Betty boop too and his eyes shined when he showed me his Betty boop shrine. I remember him and I finding snails and creating "homes" for them in his backyard. I remember him creating a robot box costume for his son's and we had so much fun playing in the yard with it. As an adult, we didn't get to see each other much, but when we saw each other at our dad's memorial, we reconnected immediately. He had a sweet soul and would do anything to let others know he cared. He will be very missed <3
