

Joseph Charles Monaghan

October 24, 1949 - October 22, 2014

Joseph C. Monaghan died Oct. 22, 2014 in Napa, following a series of strokes over the last eight years. He was born on Oct. 24, 1949, in Upland, California, to Irene and Clem Monaghan. He has resided in Napa for the past 36 years. He served honorably in the U.S. Navy as a medic, and later worked in the maintenance and repair of television studio equipment at Napa College. He leaves behind his wife of 36 years, Sue, and his sisters, Ellen Teneriello of San Diego and Irene Mathers of Upland. He was predeceased by his brother, Robert, in 2010. He will be sorely missed but we know he is no longer in pain. A memorial gathering will be at a later date. Contributions to a charity of the donor's choice are suggested.

Service:

Remembrance Gathering

To Be Announced, CA