

Linda Sue Yohner

August 22, 1945 - September 2, 2017

Linda Sue Yohner, 72, of Napa, died peacefully Sept. 2 at a local convalescent center following a lengthy illness. Born August 22, 1945 in Vallejo, she was the daughter of the late William Yohner and Shirley Young. She was a 1963 graduate of Napa High School, attended Napa College, and received a Bachelors degree and teaching credential from then Sacramento State. Linda taught elementary school first in a public system and last at St. Johns Catholic School in Napa. She spent most of her career as a mortgage underwriter in Napa's real estate industry, retiring after more than thirty years. She attended St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic Church in Napa. Linda was preceded in death by her parents and by her nephew, Mike Smalley. She is survived by three siblings: Debby Mills, Rick Yohner, and Mark Yohner, and by a number of nieces and nephews. Graveside service will be 11:00 am Friday, Sept. 8, at the Rockville Cemetery, 4219 Suisun Valley Rd. in Fairfield. Treadway & Wigger Funeral Chapel is serving the family.

Tribute Wall

“ Linda was our "Little Fairy Godmother." She included everyone to her parties and always made you feel Welcome. She was a Breath of Fresh Air and I always remember her laugh. Linda and I were friends at at the Napa Junior College and Sacramento State. She loved to play Yahtzee! When I was younger I tried to meet her at her office in St. Helena, Linda, Dear..you were a Blessing to Everyone that came into contact with you. I feel so Guilty because I had no idea that you had become so ill! We all miss you and you'll always be in our Hearts. Love, Janie SHE LOVED EVERYONE AND EVERYONE LOVED HER.
