“ Growing up as Margaret's (we called her Peggy) youngest sister was wonderful! Though she was older she never failed to participate in my little plays on the landing of our home at 829 Rhode Island St SF CA! We had a great life there with a mom ruling the roost and Dad driving the city bus! Daddy also was a master wood worker! He made us an inlaid board table!!!! I love you Peggy and loved meeting up with you in SF along with some family 🌸

You are always missed but never forgotten!💕💕💕
