

Mary Josephine Price

August 21, 1928 - July 25, 2014

Mary Jo Price left us Friday, July 25, 2014, in Napa after leading a full life sparked on Aug. 21, 1928, in Zanesville, Ohio. She was a Child of the Depression, a post-war bride in 1949, and together with Robert Lucien Price, helped build this country and a strong family of four children, seven grandchildren, and nine great-grandchildren. She was all about family, nurturing us with her sunny disposition and grounded advice; she "went with the flow", and she never wavered in adventures great and small. A world traveler, yes, but she loved nothing more than any gathering with beloved family. She will be missed by many, for as long as we have memory. Goodbye to an inspiration and a loving friend. Her funeral is at 11 a.m. Aug. 8, 2014, at St. Thomas Aquinas in Napa, California, where she and her late husband lived many happy years.
