

Pamela Gayle Gittings

November 23, 1957 - December 5, 2020

Pamela Gayle Gittings, 63, longtime resident of Napa, passed away suddenly Saturday, December 5, 2020 at home.

Pam was born November 23, 1957 in Okinawa, Japan, the daughter of the late Cyrus Brooks and Phyllis Jean (Moody) Gittings. Pam spent much of her early life in Napa where she attended local schools and received an Associate Degree from Napa College. She worked for a number of years as a waitress at Buttercream Bakery and Palby's restaurant and later as a checker at the Clay Street Safeway store in Napa. Pam returned home to Napa in recent years to care for her mother until Phyllis' death in 2019. Pam attended Napa's First United Methodist Church (now Napa Methodist Church) with her mother.

She will be remembered by her family as a devoted and caring daughter, sister and companion.

Pam is survived by her longtime companion of more than 20 years Richard Mejica, her brother Larry Gittings, and a number of nieces and nephews.

The family wishes to express their appreciation to the first responders who came to the home provide aid to Pam on Saturday and to members of the Law Enforcement and Fire Service Chaplaincy of Napa who ministered to Richard and Larry.

The family asks that memorials be made to the Napa Methodist Church, 625 Randolph Street, Napa, California 94559.

“ Pam was the most popular girl in the Clubs in the 80s in San Francisco! A great dancer and that long blonde hair and infectious laugh caught the attention of the entire room. We would head down to the City for dinner in her Yellow convertible volkswagon and drive back to Napa at 4 am! Not a care in the world. RIP Pam!

I am shocked and saddened to hear of Pammy's passing. We met in high school and were close friends in the 80's and 90's. She was loads of fun and we tore up Sacramento and San Francisco. Best memory was dancing with joe Montana at Baxter's bar in fair oaks in 1985. My condolences to her family.
