

Pauline G. Stover

May 4, 1925 - March 9, 2014

Pauline G. Stover, 88, died March 9, 2014. She was born May 4, 1925 in Crystal Springs, Arkansas to Henry Oscar and Hazel Ella (Vaughn) Daniels. Polly spent nearly 20 years as a cosmetologist but she had a much bigger passion for living life. She loved traveling, bowling, and dancing. She was preceded in death by her husband Horace (1998). She is survived by her two children Larry (Judy) Stover and Debbie (Michael) McCarthy, four grandchildren, Tracy Ferris, Shawn Risko, C.D. Stover, and Jillian Risko, three great-granddaughters and three great-grandsons. A private graveside ceremony is planned. Friends are invited to attend a celebration of her life at 2:00 p.m., Friday, March 14 at 3930 Lassen St. in Napa. Viewing will be from 3:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. on Thursday, March 13, at Treadway & Wigger Funeral Chapel. Please share condolences and memories at treadwaywigger.com.

“ I will miss Polly very much and I had the priviledge to have her as my neighbor as I was growing up. She was another grandma to all of us in the neighborhood. She witnessed all of our life experiences...she would always be up for an over the fence chat. She had the best play storage barn.... I had no idea it was her storage barn... I just thought it was my private playroom. She was the only person that could get away with calling me Clara. I had a wonderful conversation just a few months ago in front of her old house .. talking about her watching us all grow up with MaryLou, Emmitt, Curt joining in as well...we all had some great laughs and those memories I will treasure. So Godspeed sweet Polly...I am sure Horiss will be waiting for you with Louie and he better have a good drink waiting. You are loved by many and will be missed by more.
